

Kalei Namohala's "Sharing Da Aloha for Things To Do and Food"!

My top 6 things to do when on the Kona side of the island: (I love to eat!)

#1 Sundried Fish Bowl - Crab Cake and Poke

#2 Big Jakes - Brisket w/ BBQ Sauce or Pull Pork Sandwich **next door is Da Poke Shack (theres also a Poke Shack on Alii Drive)

#3 Umeke's - there's 3 of them (walk in / kiosk / sit down)

#4 Jogging down Alii Drive - beach fronts

#5 Watching the Sunset from the harbor wall.

#6 Kawaihae Shave Ice Truck

Places I take my mainland friends to go sight-seeing -

#1 Akaka Falls (parking fee - unless you park outside of the parking area - not a far walk & Rainbow Falls - free (Hilo side)

#2 Waipio Valley - Free unless you pay for someone to take you (Hamakua Coast) 4 x 4 in the valley, hike to the falls, hike up the Z trail or if no time view it from the lookout

**There is horseback riding and ATV tours.

#3 Hapuna Beach - Free (Kawaihae side) long white sand beach

#4 Pu'uuhonua O Honaunau National Historical Park - City of Refuge (Kona Side) - Free - snorkeling, learn about the area, Captain Cooks Memorial

#5 South Point - Green Sands Beach - Free (Southside = 3 mile hike or pay $10.00 shuttle fee) Take a lot of water, may get very windy

#6 Punaluu Beach - Free, turtles are always on the black sand beach, no really a good place to swim just visit and walk on the black sand and see turtles.

#7 Volcano National Park either day time or night time. Awesome experience!! (After 8p Free)

#8 Hilo Bay Rock Wall - Free, calm days only walk the wall and go with a local.
